Samya Mishra

Harvard MPA, MBA - Financial Services Strategy & Policy | Climate Financing
Cambridge, Massachusetts, United States

Summary

Harvard-educated finance and infrastructure leader with 12+ years of experience designing and managing investments across financial services, housing, and climate infrastructure sectors in the US, MENA, and Asia.

Proven record in originating and structuring $9.3B+ in blended finance, equity, and debt investments across public and private capital markets. Skilled in building partnerships between governments, DFIs, and institutional investors to deliver sustainable infrastructure and financial inclusion outcomes.

Experienced in advising public agencies, regulators, and global funds on financial product innovation, policy design, and portfolio strategy — bridging the gap between policy intent and investment execution. Passionate about leveraging finance as a tool for economic growth, resilience, and impact.
